The 16 page lesson on Hinduism prepared diligently and thoroughly by Hinduism Today magazine presents a clear, lucid, authentic and easily-understandable picture of the Hindu history, tradition and practices. I hear so many complaints from Hindu parents and students in USA and Europe regarding the incorrect, and even frequently demeaning, presentation of Hinduism in World's Religions classes. It is time that the educational board and textbook publishers take a sincere interest in presenting Hinduism in a correct and factual manner.

The team of Hinduism Today has prepared the most comprehensive summary of Hinduism's multi-faceted tradition that I have seen to date.

I wholeheartedly and unequivocally recommend the use of this summary in all official textbooks for all students.

I sincerely hope that the Board of Education will take advantage of this booklet to remedy the serious misinterpretations that currently exist in textbooks, and to use this booklet (or parts thereof) in all new editions of world's religions textbooks for students.

With love and blessings.

In the service of God and humanity,

Swami Chidanand Saraswati
